MEDIA RELEASE

Date: April 29, 2014
Issued by: R. Winstanley
Time: 11:40 AM
Topic: Found Pot Belly Pig

During the early morning hours of April 29, 2014, Officers responded to the 1000 block of Calcutta Drive in Hurst in regard to a domesticated Pot Belly pig roaming the area streets. Officers located the animal which they described as friendly, with a small laceration on the top of its head. A Hurst Animal Control officer responded to take custody of the animal, which was treated for the laceration and is now being tended to at the Hurst Animal Services shelter. The pig is described as black and white in color, female, and approximately 30 lbs.

We are asking for help for information that will assist us in reuniting the animal with her owner. Anyone with information, please contact Hurst Animal Services at 817-788-7216.
