MEDIA RELEASE

Date: June 24, 2013
Issued by: Sgt. Craig Teague
Time:
Topic: Motor Vehicle Accident involving 2 year old child

On Saturday, June 22, 2013, at about 9:48 p.m., Hurst Police Officers and medical personnel were dispatched to 601 Brown Trail, The Gables at Notting Hill Apartments, in regard to an automobile versus pedestrian accident involving a child that was hit by a car in the complex parking lot. Upon arrival, medics and officers found an unresponsive two year-old male child being held by his mother.

Witnesses stated that the child had been walking in the complex parking lot when he was struck by a vehicle pulling from a parking space. The driver of the vehicle met briefly with the child's parents at the scene and then fled in the vehicle before emergency personnel arrived.

The child was transported to Cook's Children's Hospital. The Tarrant County Medical Examiner's Office has publically identified the child as Lawrence Walker, 2 years of age
