MEDIA RELEASE

Date: July 25, 2013
Issued by: LT M. E. Schwobel
Time: 8:00 AM
Topic: ARREST - Aggravated Robbery

On July 24, 2013, at about 10:38 a.m., a man entered the Shell gas station in the 1400 blk of West Hurst Boulevard and reportedly displayed a knife while demanding money. The suspect fled to his vehicle in the lot and drove away. A description of the man and the vehicle were obtained and officers looked for the suspect and processed the crime scene.

At around 2:00 p.m. a Hurst patrol officer located a vehicle matching the description of the robbery suspect driving in the area of Pipeline Road and Loop 820. An investigative stop yielded further information leading to the man's arrest.

The suspect, a 40 year old Ft. Worth resident, is currently in custody at the Hurst Police Department where he is in the process of being charged with the offense of Aggravated Robbery.
