Date: April 1, 2014
Issued by: Hurst Police Department
Time: 6:30am
Topic: Update on Silver Alert - Elderly Couple Located

The Grapevine Police Department received a call from a concerned citizen at 11:39 pm on March 31st, 2014 to report they believed they were behind the Silver Pontiac Vibe described on the TXDOT Billboards as belonging to the missing couple from the City of Hurst. Grapevine police officers arrived on-scene in the area of William D. Tate and Ball Street and confirmed the occupants of the Pontiac were the subjects of the Silver Alert. The husband and wife explained they had simply been lost the entire time. They were checked out by paramedics at the scene and found to be in good health. They were reunited with their family a short time later and returned home.
