MEDIA RELEASE

Date: April 17, 2015
Issued by: R. Winstanley, Assistant Chief
Time: 4:00 PM
Topic: UPDATE: Homicide Investigation

The investigation has led us to believe that the homicide stems from an incident of domestic violence. The suspect has preliminarily been identified and we are currently in contact with the suspect at a residence in Haltom City.

As a precautionary measure during the early stages of the investigation, due to the close proximity of the suspect's location to an elementary school a request was made to activate a "lock down" at Nathan Howell Elementary (FWISD). As more information became available a reassessment of the need to continue the lock down was re-evaluated and after careful consideration it was decided to release the lock down and dismiss the school as scheduled.

Investigators continue to process information of the investigation. We are not prepared at this time to release any additional identification or other information.
